

Striving to influence and enhance orthopedic traumatology through education, mentorship, humanitarianism, and research founded on firm clinical grounds

COURSE OFFERINGS 2026

All courses offer a high faculty to participant ratio
Resident/Fellow Scholarship Opportunities Available

Please register at: <https://fotnorthamerica.org/events/>

DATE:
Location:
Faculty:
Participant level:

Friday May 8, 2026 Foundation for Orthopedic Trauma Pelvic/Acetabular Course
FIVE Lab, 4115 E. Spruce St. Tampa, FL 33607
Dr. T. Christiano, Dr. M. DeBaun, Dr. J. Johnson, Dr. J. Langford, Dr. M. Maceroli, Dr. H. Mir
PGY4 applied into Trauma-Trauma Fellow Level
This full day course is designed for the participant to hone their skills on the various approaches to the pelvis and acetabulum.

DATE:
Location:
Faculty:
Participant level:

Saturday October 10 and Sunday October 11, 2026 Foundation for Orthopedic Trauma Lower and Upper Extremity Dissection Course
IRCAD, 905 Pearl Park Way, Charlotte, NC 28204
Dr. K. Dickson, Dr. A. Ganta, Dr. L. Kempton, Dr. R. Richard
PGY2-4 Orthopedic Resident
This 2 day lower and upper extremity dissection approach course is designed for the participant to have a full 2 days dissecting and increasing their technical skills on the various approaches to the lower and upper extremity.

DATE:
Location:
Faculty:
Participant level:

Friday November 13 and Sunday November 14, 2026 Foundation for Orthopedic Trauma Lower and Upper Extremity Dissection Course
Science Care Lab, 3929 E. Conant St. Long Beach, CA 90808
TBD
PGY2-4 Orthopedic Resident
This 2 day lower and upper extremity dissection approach course is designed for the participant to have a full 2 days dissecting and increasing their technical skills on the various approaches to the lower and upper extremity.